The readings for the 4th Sunday of Lent focus on God's faithfulness in drawing us closer to him. The first reading tells how God inspired Cyrus to allow the chosen people to worship once again in Jerusalem. And in the gospel we hear of Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus, where Jesus explains that he was sent to us out of the boundless love of God.

OUR PARISH LENTEN PRACTICE 2024; BIBLE READING:

If you want to know God, read your Bible. The Bible is primarily a story about God. He is the main character. Over and over, the Bible says, "God loves," "God says," "God does." Every time we read about God; we get to know what He is like. We get to know His character, His desires, His personality, and His interventions in human history.

"JESUS ANSWERED, 'I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE. NO ONE COMES TO THE FATHER EXCEPT THROUGH ME.'

JOHN 14:6

We need volunteers to help with the running of the church. If you feel you can spare some time, please contact the parish office to have a chat.

BAPTISM: Many congratulations to Dayana Pylypiv, who will be received into the Church this weekend. May God continue to guide your way each and every day of your life.

SECOND COLLECTION: At all weekend masses there will be having a second collection for the Easter Flowers.

MOTHERING SUNDAY: Today we celebrate all the wonderful parents we have within our Parish. Please also keep those in your prayers whose parents are with God and spare a thought for all those who may find this day challenging. A reminder that all Communion candidates are required to attend Mass on Sunday 10th March. Attendance to Mass is compulsory and registers will be taken.

Parish Registration

We will soon be using a new computer system to help us manage our parish better. It starts with us making sure that we have up to date contact information for all of our parishioners and so we would be grateful if you could complete the registration form by clicking on this QR code or by typing the link into your browser.
